

TAOIST LONGEVITY TONICS

The Taoist tradition of using Chinese herbs as an adjunct to dietary practices, meditation and internal exercises, to maintain health and live exceptionally long lives has been written about in both ancient and modern texts. Out of the Taoist tradition of herbal use, certain Chinese herbal formulas have stood the test of time, and due to their proven efficacy have become legendary.

Two such Taoist longevity prescriptions are:

- ◆ TWO IMMORTALS WINE
- ◆ LIVE 100 YEARS LONGEVITY TONIC.

These premiere formulas were originally developed for use by the Imperial household, and truly represent the power of Taoist elixirs. Whenever we are asked to suggest a premier Taoist formula for improving overall health, both of these legendary elixirs are given our highest recommendation.

Our Taoist Longevity Tonics are 100% pure — made from the highest quality organically grown Chinese herbs and we guarantee their efficacy.

Taoists (both men and women) have actively used these premiere herbal prescriptions for many centuries because of their proven ability to improve overall health and vigor.

What miracles can you expect to experience?

TWO IMMORTALS WINE

The main ingredients in this potent formula are Gui Ban (tortoise) and Lu Rong (deer antler) which according to Taoist teaching are symbols of longevity and vitality. The formula also contains a potent hit of Ren Shen (ginseng) and Gou Qi Zi (lycium fruit). The combination of these ingredients produces a formula that powerfully invigorates the Jing, Chi, blood, and bone marrow, which is critical for maintaining strength, extending life, and prolonging the onset of diseases associated with aging (such as: brittle bones, sexual decline, diminished strength and vitality).

LIVE 100 YEARS LONGEVITY TONIC

This powerful tonic combines fifteen ingredients that are renowned for their ability to enhance the functioning of the body's vital organs (especially the heart, kidneys, liver, lungs, and spleen). These herbs will strengthen the immune system (Wei Chi), delaying the physical debilitation that accompanies the aging process. The fifteen potent ingredients in this formula are: Huang Qi, Shan Zhu Yu, Bai Zhu, Fu Ling, Shu Di Huang, Fang Feng, Sheng Di Huang, Rou Gui, Mai Men Dong, Gou Qi Zi, Wu Wei Zi, Qiang Huo, Fu Shen, Dang Shen, and Da Zao.

How to best use these formula?

Taoist tradition recommends preparing these herbal formula into a medicinal wine (yao jiu), which must age for a minimum of 90-days, to allow the herbal properties to be properly extracted. Daily dosage would be to drink one 50ml shot glass full (of each formula). Treatment is recommend for the long term, actually for the rest of your life to truly reap the benefit of the treatment. Once prepared the yao jiu can be safely stored for many years; as a matter of fact, the longer it continues to age the more powerful its abilities will become.

Not interested in making a wine?

For those who don't have the time to wait for a yao jiu to age or prefer not to drink alcohol; we will powder the herbal formula and the powder can be added to capsules, or a smoothie or juice and drunk that way. Regretfully, due to rising costs — there will be a $10.00 extra fee applied for powdering.

Daily dosage (for capsules) is 3 caps 3 x daily, when adding the powder to juice/smoothie, mix one heaping teaspoon into 8 ounces of juice/smoothie and drink that 2-3 x daily. However, we would be remiss if we did not state that while effective when used this way, a medicinal wine does make a more potent brew and the formula's effects are more powerfully felt. Whether you decide to prepare the traditional medicinal wine or use the powdered herb in capsules or a smoothie, we will provide easy-to-understand processing instructions.

“each” formula is
$74.99.
